Janet Hale is an educational consultant and trainer who specializes in curriculum mapping. She travels extensively to work with public, private, and parochial schools and districts throughout the United States. She enjoys assisting newcomers to the curriculum mapping model, supporting implementation procedures, aiding struggling initiatives, and advising those ready for advanced mapping, including the integration of 21st century skills. Her experiences as an elementary, middle, and high school teacher combined with a Masters Degree in Leadership and Curriculum are an asset when helping teachers and administrators in their ongoing mapping process.

Her book, A Guide to Curriculum Mapping: Planning, Implementing, and Sustaining the Process, has become a Corwin Press best seller. Corwin will also publish Janet's latest book, An Educational Leader's Guide to Curriculum Mapping: Creating and Sustaining Collaborative Cultures, which will be available in July. Many find her web site, www.CurriculumMapping101.com helpful in supporting their mapping journeys.
